 - "Your Habit Hub."
 - "Making Every Habit Count."
 - "Empower Your Routine."
 - "Habits Connected, Goals Achieved."
 - "Crafting Tomorrow's Habits, Today."
 - "Where Habits Meet Progress."
 - "Design Your Destiny."
 - "Connect the Dots to Success."
 - Or stick with "Your Path to a Better You"
 - "Connect. Commit. Change." <- NEW SLOGAN DECIDED

Discussion:

New GitHub bot on the Discord will send a message to the pull-request channel every time a pull request is created. Robbie will look into if the bot can also send a message when that PR gets merged.

Discussed the design ideas for Challenges and Leaderboard pages, and what the difference between them would be. We decided that there would be nothing global, everything would be amongst friends.

Decided on "Connect. Commit. Change." as new site slogan.

Challenges

- create group challenges with friends
- one person creates the challenges, friends can join
- habits get added to dailies page

Leaderboard

- who had the highest streak among pals
- who has completed the most challenges
 - comparisons between friends

Guest homepage ideas got approved vaguely, still needs to be finalized before moving to finalized design ideas in Figma.

What has everyone been working on?

Kacie - Guest user homepage

Elya - Added API stories for homepage, what fields are needed

Lysa - Looking into images

Robbie - 3 new habit API requests got put through

Max - Got his tables and popups working

What will we be working on?

Max - Changing data to components, new button to add habit

Yifan - Components

Robbie - Working on backend methods (APIs)

Kacie - Designs, progress report 2

Lysa - Profile picture on the backburner, Lysa working on routers for schemas that haven't been worked on yet

Elya - User profile page on hold, back-end working on it, designs

User profile picture

- How are we storing the image? Can we store it in the session storage? Need to think about this.

Dailies page

- Time/count measurement can be stored in habitcheckin table in the database
- Will need to have limit for the number of characters in a habit name

Next Time:

Meeting - Friday Mar 8 at 2:00pm

Goal - Sprint 2 Review meeting is in one week, what is our progress like? What are we going to work on? Will we meet our goals?
